|------|---|---|
| 1    | Mechanism to verify background of PIO/NRIin foreign country prior to marriage-education, job, salary, marital status etc. | Registration by the NRIs at theIndian Embassy/Consulate isvoluntary and the Mission does nothave any comprehensive list of NRIsunder its jurisdiction as all NRIs donot register.Even those who have registereddo not provide full personal detailslike salary etc. The Germanauthorities refuse to divulge suchinformation even to the Embassy asGermany has very strict dataprotection laws. Thus, it is difficultto get background checks onindividuals. |
| 2    | Unregistered marriage of Indian women withOverseas Indian spouse (only socialmarriage)                                    | German authorities do not deemany marriage as legally valid unlessit is registered under the civil law inGermany or India. NRI whosemarriage is not registered cannotbring the spouse to Germany. Ifafter the so-called "Social marriage"the husband goes abroad and thewife remains in India, it is seen as apersonal matter between the twopersons/families.  |
| 3    | Dowry demanded by spouse/ parent-in-lawwho are living abroad  | The Mission will not come to knowabout such demands unless theperson/family affected makes acomplaint. This matter may be dealtwith by the person concerned inIndia as per relevant provisions ofthe law.   |
| 4    | Overseas Indian hides the fact that he isalready married in the foreign country   | Legal system is strong in Germany ifbigamy is proved. Moreover, beforemarriage, the prospectivespouse/family in India can insist ona registration certificate of the NRIand a marriage eligibility certificateissued by the local authority wherehe/she is registered.  |

| 5   | Finding out location or whereabouts of husband in foreign country   | This is a legal matter. An officialrequest has to be made through theCourt in India to the Germangovernment.  |
|-----|---|---|
| 6   | Disappearance of spouse/ Abandonment ofIndian women by overseas Indian husbands(NRI/PIO/foreign spouse) | A strong legal system exists in caseof disappearance or abandonment.An official request has to be madethrough the Court in India to theGerman government.   |
| 7   | Providing shelter to abandoned women/children abandonment by overseas India                                 | There are a number of GermanNGOs which give advice, and inexceptional cases provide evenshelter/material assistance. Somelocal German authorities have alsosuch offices, which one can beapproached.  |
| 8   | Grant of permanent residency to Indianwomen/ children abandoned by overseasIndian spouse in India       | Residence permit is granted by theGerman local authorities based onthe existing rules and administrativeinstructions. Each individual casevaries and the local authorities takea decision based on the merit ofeach case.   |
| 9   | Property Rights for aggrieved Indian wife inproperty of overseas Indian spouse in foreigncountry        | This is a legal matter, which has tobe settled through legal process.   |
| 10  | Abuse/ Domestic violence/ Ill treatment ofwife by the NRI/PIO husband                                       | See No.8. In case or assault, Policecan take necessary legal action onbasis of the complaint.   |
| 11. | Child abduction/ Charge on wife by overseasIndian husband   | Matter needs to be settled through legal process.   |
| 12. | Child Custody sought by Indian woman whenchildren, spouse are based abroad                                  | Matter needs to be settled through legal process.   |
| 13  | Ex parte decree/ divorce in foreign country   | Ex parte decree/divorce takes placeonly when the spouse in India doesnot respond to Court summons   |
| 14  | How much money is required to file a case in such matters   | It is difficult to assess the legalcosts. It varies depending on thefees of the lawyer, which vary, thenumber of sessions and the length oftime spent in settlement of the case.For legal aid and filing a case, anamount ranging between Euro3000/- to Euro 5000/- may beconsidered. |
| 15  | Look out circular of Overseas Indians sent byGOI to foreign government                                      | This is shared with relevant localauthorities for further action at theirend. Police are approached to tracemissing persons.  |
| 16  | Legal assistance by foreign government to the   | No such facility is known to be   |

|    | aggrieved woman to file case against overseas  | available. Such cases are usually     |
|----|--|---------------------------------------|

|-----------|---|--|
| 1         | Mechanisms to verify background ofPIO/NRI in foreign country prior tomarriage-education, job, salary, maritalstatus, etc. | Informed candidates can get theinformation through open sourceavailable on Internet. However,there is no mechanism to verifysuch details in USA due to privacylaw.   |
| 2         | Unregistered marriage of Indian women withOverseas Indian spouse (only socialmarriage)  | In USA, marriages are alwaysregistered. Hence, the consulatehas not come across any socialmarriages.   |
| 3         | Dowry demanded by spouse/parents-in-lawwho are living abroad  | Dowry demand is totally prohibited in USA.   |
| 4         | Overseas Indian hides the fact that he isalready married in the foreign country   | Suppressing of facts hidden isserious offence. One can legallychallenge the case.  |
| 5         | Finding out location or whereabouts ofhusband in foreign country  | Privacy act of the country does notallow them to share theinformation; However legal coursecan be perused to find the detailsthrough the court. Information canalso be ascertained through his/heremployer or from foreigngovernment immigration etc.  |
| 6         | Disappearance of spouse/Abandonment ofIndian women by overseas Indian husbands(NRI/PIO/foreign spouse)                        | Once we receive complaint aboutmissing/ abandoned spouse we tryto help them through ourempanelled NGO's and localIndian communities support. AnNGO-ASHA can be contacted forlegal and financial assistance.  |

|-------|---|--|
| 1     | Mechanisms to verify background ofPIO/NRI in foreign country prior tomarriage-education, job, salary, maritalstatus, etc. | This is not possible in Australia asauthorities /employers would notshare the personal details ofPIO/NRI because of strict privacylaws.                        |
| 2     | Unregistered marriage of Indian womenwith Overseas Indian spouse (only socialmarriage)  | All marriages are registered inAustralia. There can be some rarecase where social marriages werenot registered. Consulate is,however, not aware of such cases. |
| 3     | Dowry demanded by spouse/parents-in-lawwho are living abroad  | Dowry demand is done by parent in law in India.  |
| 4     | Overseas Indian hides the fact that he isalready married in the foreign country   | This is true but authorities do notshare personal details aboutperson's marital status because ofstrict privacy laws of Australia.                                 |

8. NEW ZEALAND

| 1   |  | provisions in the foreigncountry (New Zealand)  |
|-----|--|---|
|     | Mechanisms to verify background ofPIO/NRI in foreign country prior tomarriage-education, job, salary, maritalstatus, etc.            | One particular mechanism to verifyones background is to refer to theirpassport copy which states thenationality of a person. This will berelevant only for people who areResidents of the country notcitizens. There is no legal documentthat is available to the general publicthat displays the background of aPIO/NRI. |
| 2   | Unregistered marriage of Indian womenwith Overseas Indian spouse (only socialmarriage)   | New Zealand recognizes therelationship of a de-facto partner. Soa social marriage or a partnership(that has a genuine, stable andongoing relationship) is recognizedas a marriage. Overseas recognizedor registered marriages arerecognized in New Zealand.   |
| 3   | Dowry demanded by spouse/parents-in-lawwho are living abroad   | There is no specific provision on dowry law in NZ   |
| 4   | Overseas Indian hides the fact that he isalready married in the foreign country  | Legally per the Crimes Act 1961(New Zealand), a person cannotmarry in New Zealand if they arealready married. Polygamy is acrime in NZ. However if a marriedperson marries someone in anothercountry (such as India in thisscenario) the laws of that countrywill prevail.  |
| 5   | Finding out location or whereabouts of husband in foreign country  | The location of a person is notprovided by NZ authorities withoutthe consent of the individual due toprivacy issues.  |
| 6 7 | Disappearance of spouse/Abandonment ofIndian women by overseas Indian husbands(NRI/PIO/foreign spouse)Providing shelter to abandoned | An adult cannot be forced to livewith another adult in New Zealand.The next of kin or friends may beable to assist. Complaints may belodged with the police, if there hasbeen a fraud or deception. However,enforcement may be difficult.There are charitable organisations in  |

The Court will look intonumber of factors including otherfinancial means, independency,capacity to work and earn, lookingafter children, any period ofretraining required. |

9. CANADA

| S.No. | Problems faced by Indian womenmarried to Overseas Indians   | Current Legal and otherprovisions in the foreigncountry   |
|-------|---|---|
| 1     | Mechanisms to verify background ofPIO/NRI in foreign country prior tomarriage-education, job, salary, maritalstatus, etc. | It is submitted that under the strictprovisions of Privacy Act, theCanadian authorities do not shareany information on any matter,including marriage-related issues,about any person, whether Canadianor otherwise, living in Canadawithout the written consent of theperson in question. Hence, it is notpossible for this Mission to verifythe background relating to theeducation, job, salary, marital statusof the PIO/NRI in Canada prior tomarriage. |
| 2     | Unregistered marriage of Indian womenwith Overseas Indian spouse (only socialmarriage)  | The Canadian authorities do notshare with the Consulate anypersonal information about aperson, whether Indian orotherwise, in view of the strictprivacy laws. Therefore, it wouldnot be possible for this Mission toknow the number of unregisteredmarriages of Indian women withoverseas Indian spouses.   |
| 3     | Dowry demanded by spouse/parents-in-lawwho are living abroad  | The Mission has no locus standi toapproach any Canadian authority orany person in Canada to inquireabout the dowry demanded by anyNRI/PIO spouse or his/her familyliving in Canada. One has to takerecourse to the provisions of theMutual Legal Assistance Treaty(MLAT) between the two countriesfir redressal of grievances.   |
| 4     | Overseas Indian hides the fact that he isalready married in the foreign country   | As already mentioned, the Canadianauthorities do not share anyinformation with the Consulate orany third person about the maritalstatus of a PIO/NRI, in view of thestrict privacy laws.  |

|    |  | The only way to know the maritalstatus of an Indian national ischecking of their PRIDE data whichagain cannot be said to be a trueproof.  |
|----|--|---|
| 5  | Finding out location or whereabouts ofhusband in foreign country   | Owing to strict Privacy laws, it is notpossible for this Mission toapproach any Canadian authority orprivate persons to find out thewhereabouts of an Indian NRI/PIOspouse in Canada.   |
| 6  | Disappearance of spouse/Abandonment ofIndian women by overseas Indian husbands(NRI/PIO/foreign spouse) | There is no way this Mission cantrace in Canada a fugitive spousewho has abandoned his/her Indianspouse.  |
| 7  | Providing shelter to abandonedwoman/children abandonment by overseasIndian                             | The local Canadian social servicesauthorities do provide shelter andfood to abandoned woman/childrenthough they do not share suchinformation with this Mission.   |
| 8  | Grant of permanent residency to Indianwomen/children abandoned by OverseasIndian spouse in India       | The Canadian authorities grantpermanent residency only to thosewomen and children who aresponsored by the Indian NRI/PIOspouse.   |
| 9  | Property Rights for aggrieved Indian wife inproperty of Overseas Indian spouse inforeign country       | An aggrieved Indian wife can file acase in Indian court for 50% of theforeign owned property of herspouse. However, the Canadianauthorities do not recognise thecourt orders of India in such cases.She can also approach a lawyer inCanada after reaching here even onvisitor visa, sponsored by anybody(not necessarily her husband).   |
| 10 | Abuse/Domestic violence/Ill-treatment ofwife by the NRI/PIO husband  | The Mission also receivedcomplaints of abuse/domesticviolence/ill-treatment by Indianwives at the hands of their NRI/PIOhusbands. However, the Missioncannot take up the matter with theconcerned local police authorities asit has no locus standi in the matterdue to strict privacy laws. In suchcases, only the distressed Indianwomen can seek the assistance oflocal police/other authoritiesdirectly. |
| 11 | Child abduction/Charges on wife byoverseas Indian husband  | Normally the Canadian immigrationauthorities ask for the consent letterif the child is travelling alone or with   |
